- Childcare centres will remain open.
- Anyone in the affected LGAs will be required to stay at home except for essential reasons. Anyone who was in South East Queensland, Townsville (including Magnetic Island) or Palm Island on or since 6pm Tuesday 29 June 2021 is required to follow the same lockdown rules even if they are no longer in those areas.
- You can only leave your residence (which includes temporary accommodation such as a holiday rental) for limited permitted purposes such as:

  - shopping centres and supermarkets
  - hospitals and aged care facilities, if permitted to visit
  - indoor workplaces (where safe to wear a mask and you can't physically distance)
  - public transport, taxis and rideshare, and waiting places or queues for this transport
  - airports and travelling on planes.
- Masks do not need to be worn in some circumstances, including children under 12 years, where people have certain medical conditions, and in workplaces where it is not safe to do so.
- Masks may be removed when sitting down to eat and drink, undertaking strenuous exercise and for employment purposes.

- Funerals will be limited to 20 people, and weddings will be limited to 10 people, including the celebrant and the couple.
- Restrictions on aged care, hospitals, disability care and correctional facilities apply with no personal visitors allowed. Anyone attending these facilities in South East Queensland, Townsville or Palm Island, including staff, must wear a mask. People will still be able to visit their loved ones who are at end of life.
- You can return to your home outside of South East Queensland, Townsville or Palm Island, but you must follow the same lockdown rules when you return home, regardless of where your destination is.
- Those leaving South East Queensland, Townsville or Palm Island during this time may do so for essential reasons or to return home, but must also remain at their residence and limit their movements until the lockdown period has ended.
